EXPORTS AND IMPORTS.

Statement of September Business as Compared With Last Year.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Total exports for September were $38,543,443, against $38,796,677 for last year; for the first nine months of 1895, $377,930,816, against $376,618,375 for the corresponding period last year. The imports for September were $30,617,898, against $30,536,193 for September, 1894; for the first nine months of 1895, $306,983,123, against $306,509,947 for the corresponding period last year. For September, 1895, the excess of exports was $6,925,548; for September, 1894, the excess of exports was $8,150,972; for the first nine months of this year there was an excess of exports amounting to $14,029,576, and for the corresponding period of last year an excess of exports of $14,329,241; for the corresponding period last year, $23,815,103. For silver the excess of exports for the first nine months of this year was $39,683,495, against $27,089,673 for the corresponding period last year.

The total immigration last month was $3,599; for September, 1894, 24,994; for nine months of 1895, 249,332; for corresponding period in 1894, 191,483.

An Ethnological Find.

MILFORD, Ohio, Oct. 16.—T. H. Morehead, who had charge of a large section of the Mound Builders' exhibition in the Ethnological department of the Chicago world's fair, has made a wonderful discovery upon opening a mound in the little Miami valley near here. It consisted of an unprecedented number of human skeletons of very ancient date, along with flints, weapons, utensils, religious emblems and the like in great variety, and diverse material, including some ornaments in gold and silver, as well as bronze.

Deaths of the Insurgents.

HAVANA, Oct. 16.—A serious outbreak occurred in the jail of Santa Clara yesterday. Before it was suppressed, General Luque had to send troops to the scene of the disturbance. Four of the ringleaders of the riot were made prisoners by the soldiers and when they subsequently tried to escape three of them were shot, but one of the captured ringleaders succeeded in getting away. The insurgents have burned the town of Congojas, in the province of Santa Clara.

Uncle Sam Made No Threats.

MADRID, Oct. 16.—El Nacional says the Spanish government has not received any threat from the government of the United States respecting the reception or treatment of the United States consul at Havana, Ramon O. Williams. El Nacional adds that the government of Spain, in consequence of the friendly representations of the government of the United States, has recognized the American consul as a diplomatic agent.

Fire on Atlanta's Midway.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 16.—Temporary excitement was created on the exposition grounds yesterday afternoon by a fire on the Midway by the explosion of a gasoline stove in the Old Plantation at the eastern extremity of the Midway. The fire was soon under control, but the Old Plantation exhibit was destroyed. The Phantoscope, best show, suffered $50 damage, and Haggenbach's wild beast arena suffered to the extent of $800.

Counter Has Fled.

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 16.—A complaint charging the embezzlement of public money was sworn out against ex-Deputy City Treasurer Jerome Coulter in police court by the county attorney. The warrant was placed in the hands of an officer for service at once. He was not to be seen, and it is expected that he has fled to a point on the Texas border where he can reach Mexico at a moment's notice.

A Puzzle to Sackville-West.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—Lord Sackville, formerly British minister at Washington, writes the Times in reference to a pamphlet entitled "My Mission to the United States, 1889," the substance of which was cabled to the New York World and given to the Associated Press. Lord Sackville explains that the pamphlet was printed privately for friends and was never intended to be published, and he cannot understand how it became public.

Carriage Builders Meet.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Oct. 16.—The annual convention of the Carriage Builders' National association convened here today with an attendance estimated at over 3,000. The association was organized twenty-three years ago. It includes nearly all the prominent manufacturers of the different branches of the trade throughout the country in its ranks, and has for its object the mutual aid and support of its members, who come together once a year to discuss matters relating to their trade.

Corea's Queen May Still Live.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—There is still no official confirmation here of the reported assassination of the queen of Corea, and although there may be political motives for a concealment for a time of such a tragedy, officials here think it possible the queen may be alive, as the dispatches are somewhat doubtful on this point.

Death of the "Gila Monster."

TUPEKA, Kan., Oct. 16.—The "Gila monster," which has been one of the great curiosities in the natural history museum in this county, Joseph Dunbar attempted a criminal assault on Mrs. Holcomb, but her 15-year-old son seized a shotgun and shot her assailant dead.

A Boy Defends His Mother Well.

GEVINS, Ok., Oct. 16.—Near Richmond, in this county, Joseph Dunbar attempted a criminal assault on Mrs. Holcomb, but her 15-year-old son seized a shotgun and shot her assailant dead.

LOYAL AMERICAN DAY.

ANOTHER GREAT GALA DAY FOR GUTHRIE.

MRS. LEASE ORATOR OF THE DAY.

A Large Turnout, New Officers Commissioned—Mrs. Lease Rides the Coast—Synopsis of Her Address—Whitman's Farewell—Other Features of the Day.

Yesterday was Loyal American day in Guthrie, and the business houses and residences were decorated with the national colors and the people turned out en masse to do honor to that remarkable new organization which is creating such a stir throughout the land.

At 11 o'clock a procession of horsemen and women, footmen and wagons and carriages filled with members of the order, resplendent with sashes, shoulder-straps and badges, formed at the court house, and headed by the military band, paraded the principal streets and then repaired to Island park where the great majority of the regiment partook of a basky dinner.

A regular program was arranged for the afternoon, including the address of Mrs. Lease, of Kansas, and fully a thousand people were present.

The program opened with singing by Baby Twanley and whistling by Miss Maud Burch, and several other features, after which Division Commander Whitman delivered his farewell address, he having been commissioned a national recruiting officer.

He spoke of the struggle of many nations from the children of Israel down from liberty of the great work done here by our forefathers and compared their achievements with those sought by the Loyal Americans. He told of his advent in the territory as organizer and commander of the order, of the great work done by him and his associates in organizing regiments in nine counties and closed by introducing in words of highest praise his successor as division commander, S. P. Atherton, also the newly elected division adjutant, E. Y. Titus, quarter master, W. Brunner and ensign, J. W. Ard, each of whom were banded their commissions.

Touching upon the question of free homes as an after thought he said the Loyal Americans had decided to stand for free homes for the people of Oklahoma and with their influence wielded from every nook and corner of the nation enough congressmen could be controlled to lift the mortgage of twenty-one million dollars from the homes of Oklahomans.

General Twanley was introduced and recited a "eulogy from the death-bed of Benedict Arnold" most eloquently.

Division Commander Atherton then read the following letter: LAWRENCE, Mich., Oct. 13, 1895.—My Dear Atherton: I enclose to you a commission for that noble heroine, Mary E. Lease, which I trust you will convey to her with the full assurance of our esteem and confidence. No abler champion of liberty has ever honored her sex in true reform work, and I feel that the cause for which we sacrifice so much has received a great impetus.

Comrade Waterman returned Comrade Whitman's commission day before yesterday, but I was not able to accompany it with an expression of my regards. Say to Comrade Whitman that I give you great pleasure and satisfaction to extend the scope of his usefulness. This position was tendered to him long ago, but he felt that he had a labor to perform that would warrant his acceptance. He has performed that labor and leaves the field in most excellent condition, a "victor with honors." Henceforth this republic is his field of operation, and his responsibilities are increased in proportion. Carry to him our assurance of respect, and confidence in his ability, loyalty and honor, and say to him that the cause of American liberty is reposed in him to a greater extent than ever, and with perfect assurance of his success. D. A. REYNOLDS, Grand Commander.

In E. L. and P. He then conferred the commission upon Mrs. Lease and she was introduced by Rev. W. W. Buchanan and addressed the audience for an hour and three quarters.

She opened by an appeal to God for better, truer, nobler men to save the republic.

Other republics there had been before this. Aristotle tells of 250 attempts at free government before the idea of Washington and his colleagues was evolved but all had failed. Rome was mighty and ruled the world for a time but when her wealth became congested and concentrated in the hands of a few she fell. Greece was founded on slavery and could not last. The republics of South America have been defeated as a phantom shadow. The United States represented by the stars and stripes so proudly displayed today is the only true republic the world has ever seen, resting as it does on true human rights and freedom, yet even that corner stone of our great republic justice to all is in danger of being torn away and our people enslaved to money kings and bonded debt.

Today we have the spectacle of a president acting as the agent of Jewish bankers and the tool of English money lenders, prostituting his office and attempting to become dictator to congress and the people. What a spectacle, groveling the last using the whole power of the republic to strengthen rotten royalty and outwitting the principles of his own party in attempting to restore a semi-barbarous corrupt teen to power over a justly free people.

She told of the wonderful resources of the nation and the progress and enterprise of the people yet all this was set at naught and waste and misery and privation were to be seen everywhere—the result of this financial disease brought on by the corrupt and unjust influence of the money power. The whole fabric of the nation was poisoned by this disease which was corrupting legislation, courts and executive departments alike.

We stand on the threshold of a period of political tumult confronted by great evils which threaten to undermine the republic.

This is not the result of any flaw in the constitution but the tramping under foot of its plain provisions. Justice is ignored in our every day affairs and people who do this cannot long survive.

There was a time when might was right but that time is passed. This is the day of thought and intellect, of schools and education and progress and men, women, children and even the preachers are thinking and breaking away from the dogmas of the past.

We are not living as a Christian nation today. If also out of every ten who profess Christianity would put into practice the grand teachings of the lowly Nazarine all this injustice and misery and social strife would be wiped out in a day. Costly churches with velvet carpets and cushioned seats and cathedral windows are built, yet within the shadow of their walls children die for bread and pallid-faced mothers sell their souls for daily sustenance. Christ taught the human brotherhood exemplified by the golden rule and how many of us profess to be his followers, yet the great evils which are upon the nation are the direct result of ignoring this brotherhood and living a gigantic lie, religiously and politically. God give us men with courage to denounce the money changers, as did the divine master.

A great change is coming, this is a time of tumult, we stand unconsciously in the midst of a great conflict—a struggle between the people and those who would enslave them. A revolution is taking place, the national debt will all be paid, but the time has come when England shall no longer dictate the terms of payment. Patriotism, freedom, duty to posterity all demand this.

We must return to the days of true political and social democracy, to the constitution in its purity and the liberties guaranteed therein. The powers and rights have been voted away and the people's birthright wrested from them, but the time is fast ripening for a change. The rank and file of the people of all parties are honest and when they become aroused they will prove equal to the occasion and apply heroic remedies to the financial disease now sapping the life of the nation. I can see the dawning of a better day when no longer will nations go to war or brothers slay each other for gain or glory—war, famine, royalty will die but the people will live with one country—the earth, one hope—Heaven.

Mrs. Maud Burch whistled the mock-bird and the meeting was dismissed.

Last night the Loyal Americans had a meeting at the court house and initiated a number of new members.

Mr. Pratt for Wife Murderer.

LEXINGTON, Mo., Oct. 16.—The trial of Henry Rabe, charged with murder in the first degree, for shooting his wife last May, was begun here yesterday evening. Rabe shot his wife with a Winchester rifle after running her away from home. There are over forty witnesses in the case, and the trial will last several days. He is wealthy and will fight the case very hard. His defense will be insanity.

Kansas Farmers Involved.

LAWRENCE, Kan., Oct. 16.—Metzger Bros., farmers and cattle feeders of Douglas county, who own 3,000 acres of land, had a chattel mortgage filed against their property this morning amounting to $8,000. J. W. Preston, another cattle feeder, had a mortgage filed against his property of about $9,000. Heavy losses from hog cholera and unsuccessful speculations were the causes.

Many Mail Men Involved.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—The mail that left last night carried 173 letters from the first assistant postmaster general to letter carriers in Chicago, notifying them that charges have been filed against them sufficient to cause their dismissal from the service, and that ten days will be allowed to them to show cause why they should not be removed.

Durrant's Counsel Ill.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—Another postponement of the Durrant trial was asked for by Attorney Dickinson immediately upon the coming of word this morning because of the continued illness from rheumatism of Attorney Deuprey. Judge Murphy, after some questioning, granted the request, postponing further action until next Monday.

Rehabilitation in Iowa.

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—A special to a morning paper from Des Moines, Iowa, says that it is stated on good Republican authority that the Republican state central committee has completed a poll of the preferences of the Republican candidates for the legislature in the matter of the resubmission of the prohibition amendment, and has found that a majority of them favor resubmission.

What Col. Jones Says.

Guthrie, Ok., Aug. 31, '95. Eggleston Danderline Co., Gentlemen: Some time ago my hair began falling out badly. I used Danderline for a few times, and it has entirely stopped my hair from falling out and has caused a growth of vigorous hair. Danderline is also unequalled for all diseases of scalp and hair and especially for eradicating dandruff. It gives one pleasure to recommend Danderline as I am satisfied it is all you claim for it, and that it is the very best hair restorer that has ever been placed on the market. Yours truly, T. J. JONES, Attorney at Law.

THE LATEST NEW WOMAN.

DR. NANNIE STEVENS ASKS SEPARATION FROM HER HUSBAND.

STARTLING CHARGE MADE.

She Says He Would Not Put the Baby to Sleep or Cook Her Breakfast—And Worse Yet, He Just Laid Around and Didn't Help Her Get the Dinner—Both Prominent People.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 16.—The divorce suit of Dr. Nannie A. Stevens against Ralph Stevens went to trial this forenoon in Judge Seacritt's court. Her husband lives in Wichita, Kan., and she lived there with him and practiced medicine there till two years ago when she brought her children to Kansas City and opened an office here. On the witness stand Dr. Stevens said her husband called her a "she doctor" in a tone of voice that implied contempt. As an instance of his rough conduct toward her she related that once she was consulting with another doctor down stairs when the baby, which was in bed with its father up stairs, began to cry. She went up and said to him: "Why didn't you put that baby to sleep?" and he told her he was not going to "feed her if she did not attend to her household duties."

At another time she had been up all night with a typhoid fever patient and in the morning telephoned to her husband to send the carriage for her. She had to walk home, and when she reproached him for it, he replied: "A little walk will do you good."

Dr. Stevens said that when she got home that morning he didn't even have breakfast ready. "And more than that, he just laid around and didn't help me get the dinner."

EPISCOPAL STATISTICS.

The State of the Church in America.

Set Yorth in a Report.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 16.—The Rev. H. C. Hoffman of Louisiana, in his report on the state of the church said that since the last conference in 1892, 10 bishops had died and 14 had been consecrated, 4 of whom went to missionary districts. The church now had 79 bishops, 4,344 clergymen, 567 candidates for lay orders, 199,420 baptisms in the past year and 141,473 communications. There were now 618,530 communicants, 5,115 church edifices and nearly 900 institutions of a benevolent or educational character. Contributions from all sources had reached $38,000,000.

Dr. Duncan showed that the body of communicants was growing more than the number of clergy. The increase in the last three years had been 55,791, while the list of priests had grown but 157, a fact he attributed to "insufficiency and diminution of stipends." The income for the three years was $25,000 less than for the preceding period. The committee made recommendations for patriotic services on the Fourth of July for stricter regard for better Sabbath observance and for more active propaganda for Christian teaching.

REFORM IN ST. LOUIS.

Police Commissioner Lee Will Try to Enforce the Sunday Closing Law.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 16.—Police Commissioner Lee has sent a letter to each of the ministers of the city asking them if they will uphold him in a heroic effort to enforce the Sunday law which has been a dead letter since 1897. He says that he is anxious to identify himself with the law loving element and to enforce "a decent and orderly observance of the first day of the week."

Nearly all of the ministers have promised the commissioner their zealous support, and a hard and bitter fight is looked for.

To Be Tried Next Month.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Oct. 16.—Dominick Wagner, the ex-priest, was arraigned in the criminal court this morning, but on application of his attorneys the case was continued until the November term, at which he will be tried on the charge of embezzlement and possibly of rape and kidnapping. No mention was made of bail as Wagner does not desire to be released, but will remain in jail pending trial.

Forced to Give Up His Room.

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—At a meeting of the Iroquois club, the leading Democratic organization of Cook county, last night, it was decided to give up the club rooms. The club will now have no permanent place in which to hold its meetings. It is said that the organization will be preserved and that some time in future new headquarters will be secured.

Missouri Masons Meet.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Oct. 16.—The Masonic grand lodge of the state convened here at 10 o'clock this morning in the hall of the house of representatives, with some 300 lodges represented. The deliberations will be held with closed doors. One matter of importance to be considered is a move to redistrict the state.

Rich Hill's Baptist Church Burned.

RICH HILL, Mo., Oct. 16.—The First Baptist church and parsonage were burned to the ground here this morning at 3 o'clock. The parsonage was unoccupied. Trouble has existed in the church, and the fire is supposed to have been incendiary.

A Railroad Builder Dead.

FORT SCOTT, Kan., Oct. 16.—Colonel T. L. Wilson, who conceived the idea of building a railroad from St. Louis to Denton, Texas, in 1860, which resulted in the construction of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas road, died in this city today.

OUR PRICES ARE RIGHT

and so are our shoes. You'll be right, too, if you select your footwear from our stock, because you'll get what is low in price, perfect in fit, and handsome in appearance. Unsightly shoes mar the whole attire, but our shoes are an addition to any outfit. The shoe bill is also a serious addition to your expenses if you buy a poor article. Always get the best by selecting your shoes from our stock. You can rest assured that this is the right thing to do, and that any other course will cost more and be far less satisfactory in its results.
